

Birla Institute of Technology & Science, Pilani

Hyderabad Campus

CALL FOR FIELD INVESTIGATOR (ICSSR PROJECT)

Date: 22 August, 2024

Applications are invited from suitable candidates for the position of Field Investigator (1 vacancy) to work on the following project sponsored by ICSSR, Govt. of India, under scheme, under the 'History and Sociology of Art, Craft, Culture and Folk Traditions of the Regions of India' under the supervision of Prof. Maya Vinai (Principal Investigator) and Prof. Tony Sebastain (Co- Principal Investigator), Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, BITS-Pilani, Hyderabad campus.

Title of the project:	Ship-building in Folklore: Orality and Memory in Tottam Pattu of Marakkalathamma
Duration of Requirement for Field Investigator	6 months
Fellowship amount:	Rs. 20,000 per month
Eligibility requirements	M.A. in History/ Folklore Studies (with minimum 60% marks) The candidate should have excellent knowledge in Malayalam (both written and spoken) as the project involves extensive engagement using local dialects. The candidate's familiarity with Performance Art forms of Kerala (especially theyyam) would be given special preference.

Interested candidates may apply providing all the relevant information with CV (showing alignment and justification with the roles/responsibilities/requirements) to tony.sebastian@hyderabad.bits-pilani.ac.in with the subject line- Application for the post of Field Investigator

Last Date of Application: 30th August

Please note that only qualified and suitable candidates will be selected for interview to be held through Google Meet Platform, which will be sometime around the 1st or 2nd week of September.

Prof. Maya Vinai
Department of HSS
BITS-Pilani, Hyderabad Campus

Birla Institute of Technology & Science, Pilani
Hyderabad Campus, Jawahar Nagar, Kapra Mandal
Hyderabad 500078, Telangana, India