

Name: Athira Raj

Email: p20220016@goa.bits-pilani.ac.in

Proposed Research: Commodification of Urban Spaces: A study of urban streets in Bangalore

Notional Supervisor: Dr. Sayantani Sarkar

Education:

- M.A. - Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Hyderabad
- B.A. (Hons) - English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad

Academic Projects

- Experiential Learning 4-day field exposure (Nov 2019)
- Masters Research "Exclusion In The Rental Housing Market" (Feb 2020)
- Masters Dissertation (May 2021)

Publications and Presentations

- Authored report on "Local Retail Business and Livelihood Challenges during COVID-19"
- Paper presentation "The Ethno-Religious Dynamics of Myanmar: The Rohingya Crisis"
- Attended eColloquium "On Feminism, Gender Justice, and Economic Freedom" at Centre for Civil Society
- Working Paper Publication on "The State of inequalities in Sub-Saharan African and Asian cities" with IIHS Bengaluru
- Authored and presented report on "Community-Police relationship: An interview based case study on Sancoale Region, Goa" for Design for Justice Project at ICG, Dona Paula
- Paper presentation on "Language Acculturation in Migrant Teenagers in Indian Cities" at Karnavati University, Gandhinagar