CONSORTIA '22

This is season 2 of the Biotech cultural event that took place on 8th December 2022. The event includes music, dance as well as a few games for the students to destress and relax amongst academics. The event was attended by all the biotechnology students across the university. The events included cultural presentations and a quiz event. It was a great way to bring the department together.

