

DYNAMIC CONE PENETROMETER

Purpose:

Dynamic cone penetrometer is an instrument designed for the rapid in-situ of the structural properties of the existing road pavements constructed of unbound materials. The robust and simple design means that the DCP is quick and easy to use, portable and suitable for use in locations where access may be difficult.