Industry Patron & Exhibitor Invitation

19-21 November 2026

BITS Pilani, Pilani Campus, Rajasthan

Dear Industry Patron,

We are pleased to invite your esteemed organization to associate with IEEE DELCON 2026 as an Industry Patron. IEEE DELCON 2026 is the fifth edition of the flagship international conference of the IEEE Delhi Section and will be hosted at BITS Pilani, Pilani Campus, Rajasthan, from 19–21 November 2026.

The previous four editions of IEEE DELCON have witnessed encouraging participation, with an average footfall of around 400 delegates, bringing together industry leaders, academic experts, researchers, innovators, startups, and future talent. IEEE DELCON has emerged as a premier platform across Electrical, Electronics, Computer Engineering, Artificial Intelligence, Semiconductor Technologies, Smart Manufacturing, Energy Systems, IoT, Robotics, and Emerging Devices.

WHY BECOME AN INDUSTRY PATRON?

As an Industry Patron, your organization can showcase its technologies, innovation initiatives, R&D capabilities, and talent-engagement opportunities before a focused technical audience.

Your association with IEEE DELCON 2026 will provide:

- Opportunity to demonstrate products, prototypes, technologies, and solutions.
- Expected participation of 600+ delegates from academia, industry, startups, research organizations, and students.
- Visibility among participants from premier Indian and international institutions.
- Interaction with distinguished speakers, researchers, innovators, startups, and future talent.
- Premium visibility through the conference website, brochures, banners, digital promotions, exhibition spaces, and stage branding.
- Scope for industry–academia collaboration, research partnerships, internships, and recruitment.

EXPECTED PARTICIPATION

- Delegates from India and abroad
- Leading faculty and scientists
- Industry professionals and technology companies
- Startups and innovators
- Undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral students

THE BITS PILANI ADVANTAGE

BITS Pilani is a major innovation and translational research hub, driven by advanced initiatives and externally funded research programs such as:
