

Young innovators earn global recognition

Soham Sawant

Arnav Bhoyar

NT KURIOCIITY

Students of BITS Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus recently gained recognition at international and national platforms for their achievements in global dialogue and innovation.

Arnav Bhoyar represented India as a delegate at the Harvard Project for Asian and International Relations 2026 held at Harvard Yard in Boston, United States. A member of the Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership (CEL), he participated in a 24-hour Impact Challenge where international teams developed solutions within a limited timeframe. The conference also had discussions on leadership, governance, technology ethics and global collaboration, with speakers including Bay Fang of Radio Free Asia and Alex Pascal of the Berkman Klein Center for Internet and Society. In another achievement, Soham Sawant was named Runner-Up (India) at the James Dyson International Design Award for his innovative project addressing real-world challenges. He was also selected among the Top 20 teams at the India AI Impact Summit 2026 and presented his project at the national finals held at Bharat Mandapam in New Delhi.